

Ghost

Lee Ryan

Here's a line for you
Don't mind me I'm cool
Here's a lie or two
I never really needed you
Cut my veins and they'll be blue
'Cause you're looking at a ghost, you knew

Take your time to hear
What I cannot say
Take the shoes from me
So you can walk a day
Cut the chains and set me free
So you can see the ghost is me

Have you seen me lately
Can anybody save me
I'm feeling like a long long way from home
'Cause I'm a ghost right now
See I'm a ghost right now
See I'm a ghost right now
See I'm a ghost right now
Right now, right now

I can stand the rain
Because I can't feel no more
I guess that I'm to blame
I've been here once before
And I know, it's hard to change
When they say you're just a ghost with no name

Have you seen me lately
Can anybody save me
I'm feeling like a long long way from home
'Cause I'm a ghost right now
See I'm a ghost right now
See I'm a ghost right now
See I'm a ghost right now
Right now, right now

Right now I feel like a merry-go
Round, round, up down, what a silly show
One spark, she blows like cherry bomb
Bang bang, bang bang
Right now I feel like a merry-go
Round, round, up down, what a silly show
One spark, she blows like cherry bomb
Bang bang

Have you seen me lately
Can anybody save me
I'm feeling like a long long way from home
