

That Woman

Leela James

Maybe your mama ain't told ya
'Bout the way that you're treating me
Maybe your daddy ain't showed ya
There's a right way to treat a queen, yeah
So listen child, let me learn ya
I'ma put you onto what you need (what you need)
You're moving kinda reckless, like you care less
Watch out before you feel this heat

I'm not "that woman"
You know my name
Don't start this fire
You'll go down in flames
I'm not "that woman"
Bitch ain't my name
Don't start this fire
'Cause I'll bring the pain

You better understand when I tell ya
You got three strikes before you bleed
It's the last time I'm gonna warn ya
There'll be a murder out in these streets
What up, why you all up on me?
What up, why you disrespecting me?
Time's up, you better watch what you saying
And I ain't playing, ah

I'm not "that woman"
You know my name
Don't start this fire
You'll go down in flames
I'm not "that woman"
Bitch ain't my name
Don't start this fire
'Cause I'll bring the pain

If you see me, you see her
What you do to her you do to me too
I am every woman
I am more than just that woman to you

I'm not "that woman"
You know my name
Don't start this fire
You'll go down in flames
I'm not "that woman"
Bitch ain't my name
Don't start this fire
'Cause I'll bring the pain
