

When It's Over

Leela James

When it's over, yeah
I'll be picking up the pieces
Oh oh
All the broken pieces
When it's over
I guess I'll start all over again
(Over again)

It's hurting
It was over before we knew
Yeah
But sometimes with love you can't be certain
In spite of all the things you do
To make it last, yeah
I never thought that we would break up
Cause we always make up
This time all the hurt and pain
Would finally shake up
And there's nothing more to say
Cause it all just slipped away
We gotta let it go
Love TKO

When it's over (after the love is over)
I'll be picking up the pieces
All the broken pieces
When it's over (I guess I'll start again)
I won't (never give up on love)
(I'ma find a new love)
I'ma find a new love, ooh

It's okay, yeah
I got no hate for you, no no
But I gotta focus on me now, yeah
No more looking back, I'm pushing through
That's what I gotta do, ooh

And through it all I'm still grateful
Cause I'm covered, and I'm thankful
In my heart I still believe
I know for sure that someone for me
I'm still standing here today
I know love will find a way
Cause what is meant for me will always be

When it's over (after the love is over)
I'll be picking up the pieces
All the broken pieces
When it's over (I guess I'll start again)
(Never give up on love)
(I'ma find a new love)
I never give up on love, ooh

When it's over
I'll be, be okay
I'ma be alright
When it's over, over

I won't never give up on love
I'ma find a new love

When it's over (after the love is over)
After the love is over
Picking up the pieces
All the broken pieces
When it's over (I guess I'll start again)
(Never give up on love)
(I'ma find a new love)
I'ma find a new love
