Let It Out Now

Leeland

It?s like you got to walk like him
Got to talk like her, got to be like them
Everybody knows you follow the crowd
Or get singled out

But God says who you are Not the world or movie stars Don?t you know He holds the answers in His hands?

We?re stuck in a system
Is there anybody different?
Is anybody listening?
Is anybody listening?

Everyone has their own sound Let it out now, let it out now There?s nothing wrong with living loud Let it out now, let it out now

I?m drawing the line between
Being them or being me
I?m not ashamed to call myself
One of Yours, Lord

But it?s a narrow path
I?ve got to break from the pack
No turning back
No turning back

We?re stuck in a system
Is there anybody different?
Is anybody listening?
Is anybody listening?

Everyone has their own sound

Let it out now, let it out now

There?s nothing wrong with living loud

Let it out now, let it out now

Yes, God?s looking for people With a passion in their hearts We?re God?s children We need to shine bright We need to shine bright

Everyone has their own sound And don?t you know all God?s children Have their sound?

Everyone has their own sound Let it out now, let it out now There?s nothing wrong with living loud Let it out now, let it out now
