

Perfect Love

Leeland

I ran away from home
You loved me, Lord
I traded you for gold
You loved me, Lord
Lived like I'd never known
That You Loved me, Lord

I stayed away in shame
You ran to me
I wandered back afraid
You ran to me
I looked at You amazed
You ran to me
Your love had never changed
You ran to me

Your perfect love, Your perfect love
Casts out all fear, casts out all fear
Your perfect love, Your perfect love
Casts out all fear, casts out all fear

You saw what we'd become
You loved us Lord
You sent your only Son
You loved us Lord
We nailed You to a cross
You loved us Lord
Not that we loved You first
You Loved us Lord

Casts out all fear, casts out all fear
Your perfect love, Your perfect love
Casts out all fear, casts out all fear

You never stop chasing us
You never stop chasing us
With Your redeeming love
You never stop chasing us

Your perfect love, Your perfect love
Casts out all fear

Love You're a fighter
You hold us tighter
Than we wanna let go
No You'll never let go
You never stop chasing
The ones You love
Now we're singing the song
You've been singing to us

Love You're a fighter

The ones You love

Casts out all fear, casts out all fear

You never stop chasing us
With Your redeeming love

You never stop chasing us
With Your redeeming love

Your perfect love, Your perfect love
Casts out all fear, casts out all fear

I ran away from home
You loved me, Lord
I traded you for gold
You loved me, Lord
