

So Justino what you gonna do now?
Where you gonna go? Cause it's past 2 and the bars are closed
Where you gonna go?
It's late at night and the stars are shining bright
Where you gonna go? Feels like the end
Cause the jack and coke came and went
Where you gonna go?

All the days and the nights we drank away
All the days and the nights we pissed away

Hollywood tonight but no stars in sight
Where you gonna go? It's 2 AM and the bars are closed again Where you gonna go?
Another night with jack and coke by your side
Where you gonna go?
I'll see you again at the porthole or in Wilmington
