

Best Friend

Left Boy

I still wear your chain round my neck
Sometimes the pieces connect
When I dream I wake up a wreck
Please don't let it be over yet, over yet
It was just a month ago
When I broke down on the bathroom floor
Can't see you anymore
I don't wanna see you anymore

Best friends, this dead end
Was destined to happen
I'm testing how far I can go
When my heart and my mind are always at war

Wherever you are
Whomever you're with
I hope you understand
I hope you can forgive

If I had one last thing to say to you
I'd say "Woohay, remember the day?"
If I had one last wish, I'd ask you to kiss these lips goodbye
If I had one last moment that I'd like to recall
I'd be in bed with you in the morning not caring 'bout it all
Smile on your face
The look in your eyes
My arm around your shoulder
With our fingers intertwined
You were looking fine
I was feeling great
Living in delusions
That you'd fall in love one day

I still wear your chain round my neck
Sometimes the pieces connect
When I dream I wake up a wreck
Please don't let it be over yet, over yet
It was just a month ago
When I broke down on the bathroom floor
Can't see you anymore
I don't wanna see you anymore

Best friends, this dead end
Was destined to happen
I'm testing how far I can go
When my heart and my mind are always at war

Wherever you are
Whomever you're with
I hope you understand
I hope you can forgive
