

EP Song

Left Boy

I just want to make you mine
Feeling like I'm out of my mind
And I just want to make you mine
Feeling like I'm out of my mind

It's been a while, yeah
You're still acting like a little child, damn
You're still trying to get me jealous with another man
And you still

You're calling in the middle of the night
You just checking in, you alright?
You don't want to, you don't want to fight
All you want to know is if (I still want to fuck you)

You're still looking like a porn star
Naked in the back seat of your new car
You want me to hit it raw
I fucking hit it raw

Look, I just want to

Hit it from the back

This time gonna be different than last time
Imma act right I don't need nothing but you by my side
Imma let the last time slide and I never want to say goodbye

Always good when I'm loving you
Never catch an L, this a W
You're always on the cell with that other dude
Trying to sell him another you, true
X5 with the high beams
Always got weed and some...
Looking so fresh so so clean
She got a new bag, it's Celine

Oh my God
Can't believe
She got the new Celine
She's blowing up the scene
Cover of the magazine

I just want to make you mine

Hit it from the back
