

Gold Chain

Left Boy

All I ever wanted was a little bit of peace
Caught up in my head all night, I'm begging you please
Lord, I don't trust nobody, no one but me
I'm a troubled man in a life of luxury

Gold Chain, hanging from my neck
Seven figures, written on the check
The pain, I try and forget
My name, up in the spotlight
I've been waiting all night
For a little bit of peace

Music is my only friend
My guitar is with me until the very end
Messages upon my phone that I never sent
I'm sorry if I disappoint, I'm too tired to mend

When I was a young man, my momma used to say
I needed nothing but the sunshine and the sea, yeah
I'm riding a wave in the Mediterranean, yeah
And I don't care what's coming my way

Gold Chain, hanging from my neck
Seven figures, written on the check
The pain, I try and forget, I try, I try
My name, up in the spotlight
I've been waiting all night
For a little bit of peace

A little bit of peace
Just a little bit of peace
(Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah), a little bit of peace
(Da, da, da, da, da, da, da, da, da, da), just a little bit of peace
