Jack Sparrow

Left Boy

They hear me comin' through
Crystal clear, somethin' new
Bloggers got some shit to do
Catchin' up with the who
L-E-F-T-B-O-why?
Because they need me here
I'm the one that's makin' love to everybody's inner ear
We got a winner here
Captain of the drunken ship
Everyone inside my crew is lovin' all this funky shit
Because it's ill, it's dope, it's sick, it's fresh, it's tight
"Supercalifragilistic"

Get high so I can get low
I'm Jack Sparrow when I smoke 'dro
Any way that the wind blow
They know I've got a sick flow
Get high so I can get low
I'm Jack Sparrow when I smoke 'dro
Any way that the wind blow
They know I've got a sick flow

All across the seven seas, everyone can suck on these Nuts, God in heaven, please, I'll be home at seven ease up
I'll be runnin' shit, even when I'm runnin' slow
Pocket full of Benjamins, closet full of hoes
I got a swag in my step, a blue bag on my jet
With two hits in it that are not the half of it yet
I'm goin' in like a minor, soon to be major
Player in the game, brighter than a laser
'Cause I

Get high so I can get low
I'm Jack Sparrow when I smoke 'dro
Any way that the wind blow
They know I've got a sick flow
Get high so I can get low
I'm Jack Sparrow when I smoke 'dro
Any way that the wind blow
They know I've got a sick flow
