

Lullabye

Left Boy

Goodnight, my angel
Now it's time to sleep
And still so many things I want to say
Remember all the songs you sang for me
When we went sailing on an emerald bay
And like a boat out on the ocean
I'm rocking you to sleep
The water's dark and deep
Inside this ancient heart
You'll always be a part of me

I was born in 88
Mummy takes pictures, Daddy will create
He sends poems from China that he painted in watercolors
I see red from the light coming through my eyelids I'm alive
I strive ahead
All I do is great
I'm always on time
Never too late
Everything is love
That and the sun rays above
Mummy would sing me a song to put me to sleep
When I'd stare on the crescent moon on the ceiling
Alright gimme a beat
Mummy likes to dance, my Mother loves the children she sacrificed her plans
This woman gave everything and more
She will pour love out 'til it covered every floor
With a three-story house, pool, swing
We would laugh, we would cry, we would dance, we would sing
It was ba-ba-beautiful
Dudududu

I don't make toasts
But this one I do, this one's for Mummy, this one's for you
I don't write rhymes but this one I write down
I put it in a letter dedicated to my hometown - V.I.E
3 capital letters the capital where all my capitals invested in me
And my friends and my hoes and my family
And if you're not one of those don't get mad at me, no

Momomomo Mommey I love you
Daddy I love you
Uh uh
Yeah your son gets to sing lullabyes now

Momomomo Mommey I love you
Daddy I love you
Uh uh
Yeah your son gets to sing lullabyes now

If you ain't feeling right I hold you in my arms so tight
You can depend on me, you can depend on me
Whenever you are feeling down I will be around
You can depend on me, you can depend on me

If you ain't feeling right I hold you in my arms so tight
You can depend on me, you can depend on me

Whenever you are feeling down I will be around
You can depend on me, you can depend on me

If you ain't feeling right I hold you in my arms so tight
You can depend on me, you can depend on me
Whenever you are feeling down I will be around
You can depend on me, you can depend on me

If you ain't feeling right I hold you in my arms so tight
You can depend on me, you can depend on me
Whenever you are feeling down I will be around
You can depend on me, you can depend on me
