

Mom, I'm scared, I might go out and change
When I come back, I'll never be the same
Daddy, I'm scared that I can feel the pressure building up
People thinking that I'm something that I am not
And I don't really know, if I will get to watch my baby grow
It's killing me, I'm telling you so

'Cause I need to be
The star that they're expecting to see
I hope it doesn't ruin me
'Cause I need to be
The star that they're expecting to see
I hope it doesn't ruin me
'Cause I need to be
The star that they're expecting to see
I hope it doesn't ruin me

Mom I'm scared, it's a little more than I expected
I'm fucking terrified, I go and be rejected
I'm good, I know I'm fucking good
'Cause I'm doing so much better than they thought I would

Girl, I fit in
Just like a hand inside the mitten
And I can't say no cause this is the dream
I've been waiting for so it seem
I fit in
Just like a hand inside the mitten

'Cause I need to be
The star that they're expecting to see
I hope it doesn't ruin me
