

Stoned

Left Boy

I am just a stone
Laying on the ground
People walk around me
I don't make a sound
When the night comes
And everyone is gone
I stand on a leaf
And I sing a little song
It goes something like

I don't wanna be stoned no more
I just wanna rock this floor
I don't wanna be stoned no more
I just wanna rock this floor

I am just a stone
Laying on the beach
Tanning in the sun
Eating off a peach
Listening to Dylan
Stone cold chillin'
I thought about my ex
But she's just one in a million
I don't wanna be
What you turned me into
It took too long to see
That you were influ-
-encing my decisions
Made me your slave
And now that I'm a stone
There's just one thing I can say

I don't wanna be stoned no more
I just wanna rock this floor
I don't wanna be stoned no more
I just wanna rock this floor

Rock this floor
Rock this floor
Rock this floor

I am just a star
Shining in the sky
I know that you miss me
Baby dry your eyes
I said I'd make it big
You said I'm not that good
Don't blame me cause I did
What you never thought I could
Cause you were just a stone
Laying in the rain
Crying to yourself
Talking 'bout your pain
I wish I could've helped you
When I really tried
But now that I'm a star
All I do is shine
