

Take It

Left Boy

I like your old songs better
The new ones are not even remotely as clever
This call me maybe track
I would not have done that
You look like a faggot
Now tell me who wants that
Oh snap

Um I'll take it, Whatever
I'll make it, Together
With the ones that are real
Fuck the ones that are fake
Break a leg and stand under a bridge ontop an earthquake (for gods sake)

I don't like the samples that you use
I sampled what I wanted and I gotta million views
Interviews dance crews news clipping sick shoes
Swag dripping like pippin giving the post game review

I'll take it, Whatever
I'll make it, Together
With the ones that are real
Fuck the ones that are fake
Break a leg and stand under a bridge ontop an earthquake

I like your beats but your lyrics kind of suck
You're only big cause your dads rich (Oh so that's what's up)
Well here's a pile of money shove it up your ~!
And get back to me
Then everyone can validate you're still a fucking whack MC

Bitches want my dick
Labels want my dick
I heard Jay Z said some crazy shit about him loving it
I'm going in motherfuckers
I'm in motherfuckers
You can love it
You can hate it
I'm a win motherfuckers

With the ones that are real
With the ones that are real
With the ones that are real
Fuck the ones that are fake

With the ones that are real
With the ones that are real
With the ones that are real
Fuck the ones that are fake

Break a leg an earthquake
