

Fuck
(Yeah)
I really really want to
Dig a hole in my chest and stick your ass inside
You can do anything that you want to
Fixated at the end of the day it's still mine
(Yeah)
I really really want to
Dig a hole in my chest and stick your ass inside
You can do anything that you want to
Fixated at the end of the day it's still mine

I've waited so long to feel the rain
A plan for pain to say the least
Undeserving open mouths to feed
You make me sick you're fucking weak
You're fucking dead to me

It's funny how all this played out
Cause I just don't believe in coincidence

I know you're somewhere out there concerned with nothing but yourself

They want me dead
Taking a leap of fate
Your eyes are burning a hole in the back of my skull
You're so little

Intoxicative seduction

They won't take me alive
Beg for your life when you die

Fuck
(Yeah)
I really really want to
Dig a hole in my chest and stick your ass inside
You can do anything that you want to
Fixated at the end of the day it's still mine
