Left To Suffer

Shame on you for trying to take what I love most
And keep your enemies close, how was I supposed to know?
Outside seasons changing
You're a snake and your time is waning

Your days are numbered now (Snake, snake)
So as you slip back down
Remember that you are a...

Snake
Cold blooded on the inside
Desperate to poison my life
Desperate to feel
Anything real
You're a snake

Oh

So when you feel me, you know it's time to go
You're a slither in the night, I'm the dark cold
Look alive, look alive fucker, look alive
Cause I've been stabbed in the back for the last time

Do you like your life of darkness?
Or does it drive you out of your mother fucking mind?

Your days are numbered now (Snake, snake)
So as you slip back down
Remember that you are a...

Snake
Cold blooded on the inside
Desperate to poison my life
Desperate to feel
Anything real
You're a snake

Won't you go away
And try to poison my life another day?
I know in hell, it's harder to breathe
Hold your tongue and don't follow me

Face your consequence

So what comes first?
Is it me or the lives you took?
Why am I the one you throw in the mud?
As if it wasn't clear
I wish you weren't here

Desperate to feel
Anything real

Snake
Cold blooded on the inside
Desperate to poison my life
Desperate to feel

Anything real
You're a snake

And I know, you're just a snake
And I know, you're just a snake
