

Valediction

Legend

Everything that meant something to me, has gone far away it's all lost
In the mix. I can't find what it means to feel full inside, it's all Foreign to me.

I need you more than you need me. Can't you save me? I'm dying inside.

Won't you please save me? Please save me now.

This is my fucking cry for help.

Finding my troubled ways, maybe it's all inside my head. You were the One who showed me not to ever give in. Not to ever give in (into the Fight)

And I can't blame you for what you did.
I just want my family back
