

Outbreak

Legenda Aurea

The resurrected one:
Believe in the strength you have
And you're rid of this burden!

The fallen one:
I am the sovereign of the legions
I will make you crawl!
I was born with intent to destroy and none will come through

The resurrected one:
Get free of this wrecking force!
The path of love will lead you

The fallen one:
I laugh myself to death
God is so weak and powerless!
Where is he now? I spit on the grave of his son!

Trapped in a downward spiral
Birth, death and decay

My core seems to break
I'm far from hope

I have reached the point of no return
My head seems to explode

These voices shall become silent...
I can't endure this anymore
