

Now I understand why I had to suffer
A preparation of what will come
I solved the enigma of life
And will lead them the way to aeon

I survived the ordeal
My burden shall be my strength
Flowing tears turn into ice
While I rise from the dust

Now I understand why I had to suffer
A preparation of what will come
I solved the enigma of life
And will lead them the way to aeon
I will resist the temptation
I will fullfill every demand

You'll find out what's left inside
...Of this soul
Don't forget who you are
Who you were
...So atrophied now

Now I understand why I had to suffer
A preparation of what will come
I solved the enigma of life
And will lead them the way to aeon
I will resist the temptation
I will fullfill every demand

Don't destroy my only hope
It is everything I have
...I know I failed
