

Wait A While

Leif Vollebekk

You gotta be humble babe
For a while if you wanna find it
You gotta stumble
For a while if you wanna get behind it
You gotta run your mouth off
Once or twice
You gotta eavesdrop
When it don't seem right

You gotta run with the devil
Before you see it
So you can come back later
Just to free it
You gotta be steel-eyed and driven
You gotta be hard and unforgiving

You gotta run those dogs
In the rain and the snow
Till you turn where it is you need to go
And when you arrive
You will praise it
Every hair on your arm I will raise it

But you're gonna have to wait a while You're gonna have to wait a while
Gonna have to wait a while
Gonna have to wait a while
