

You that fly guy they all wanna get at (I know, I know)
Baby, you ain't gotta say it (Fo sho, fo sho)
Name and number, you could get it (Leggo, leggo)
But first, we need to talk for a minute, uh
I'm curious to know your situation
Do you have a girl at home waiting? (I don't, I don't, I don't)
See, that's what I was hoping you would say

'Cause I'm attracted to you
Connection is cool, oh
So suddenly, something hit me

I knew I seen you before (Hold up, hold up)
Soon as you came through the door
You drive a coupe rollin' on deuces and it's sittin' real low
And every girl that see you want you
When you call 'em, they go
Thinking you the man, but they don't understand
And when you kissing Keisha, you already hugging Pam
Total loser, can't believe I almost fell fo ya
And before I go, you need to know that I know, oh, you a ho

You so sly, but should've covered your tracks
'Cause they follow you wherever you at
All that you're doing, them girls you flew in Poor things, they never seen it coming
'Til they heart was ruined (It wasn't me)
See, ain't no need to lie about it
Look at me, I ain't crying 'bout it
So silly of me to even think that for a second
You could've been the one

'Cause I'm attracted to you
Connection is cool, oh
So suddenly, something hit me

I knew I seen you before (Hold up, hold up)
Soon as you came through the door
You drive a coupe rollin' on deuces and it's sittin' real low

Total loser, can't believe I almost fell fo ya
And before I go, you need to know that I know, oh, you a ho

See, see, see everybody know what it is
So ain't no need to come up in here stunting with your friends
Playboy, your jig is up, go kick it to the wind
You a classified lame, man, it is what it is Just saw you the other day, kicking it with Kim
Now you over here tryna talk to my friend
Oh, be very clear, I'm far from a blocker
But this time around, you hoes won't win

I knew I seen you before (Hold up, hold up)
Soon as you came through the door

You drive a coupe rollin' on deuces and it's sittin' real low
