

Hey, I understand not every heart beats the same
You are lucky when you find the one playing your song
Singing your name like an echo, you already know the tempo
Just sing along

It seems all we ever do is fuss and fight
Leaving no room for love
I wanna go back to where we used to be
When the only thing that mattered was love
Maybe we can start over again
Put the past in the dark and let the sun come in
So here's my peace offering to you
I hope you like what me and you can do

Tonight, I'll be your Kit Kat
'Cause I'mma break you off something nice, yeah
Tonight, I'll be your Kit Kat
'Cause I'mma break you off something nice, yeah
Tonight, I'll be your Kit Kat

I'm not saying I'm the best thing in the world
But tell me I don't love you down
Don't I make you feel good every time we go 'round?
It's on and popping when I get home
Ain't no loving like loving after you've been gone a long time
Tonight, I'll be your Kit Kat
Let me there, let me care
Let me tie that do-rag around your hair
Let me, let me cater, let me listen
Let me, let me be everything, baby, that you're missing
Tonight, I'll be your Kit Kat
I'mma be on the front porch
When you walk in the house, baby, let's go
From the kitchen to the bed, right to the floor
Yeah, I want it, but you need it so much more

Tonight, I'll be your Kit Kat
'Cause I'mma break you off something nice, yeah

In perfect harmony, soulful and deep, I can feel it
Your heart playing my beat
Yeah, unique, tailored for you and me
