Keli! Keli! Keli!

It's 5 o'clock in the goddamn morning, and you still beatin' on that damn machine? It's 5 o'clock in the morning, Keli! 5 o'clock! I don't know why your brother bought you this damn machine. You using the same sound over and over again. All weekend, all day, all night, all summer! All I'm hearin' is the beat over and over again! What... what you think, you special? You think you special. You think you gon' make it in the music? Come on now, Keli. What you need to do is go down here and get an application. Focus on your school, Keli! After you go to school, take up a trade. After you take up a trade... I don't know! Come get a job with me! But you ain't gon' make it in music. You think you gon' make it in music? Stop beatin' on those damn drums, I gotta be at work in an hour! One hour, it's 5 o'clock! Damn it! Get off the goddamn drums!
