

Starlight gets bright
Make your wish come true tonight
Starlight gets bright
Make your wish come true tonight
Starlight gets bright
Make your wish come true tonight

I'd rather be the one that they always think is insane
The lionhearted stepper that you love and cannot contain
The one that they clock, and the one that stay on they brain
But for this upfront, there's a fee you gotta retain Bang-chitty, bang-chitty, chitty-bang-to-bang
I triple blink those with the nerve to think we're the same
My vanities, flair, glitz, fame, my routine
So in my spot I'll remain, I'm such a glamorous stain, oh

Starlight gets bright
Make your wish come true tonight
Vanity, vanity, vanity, vanity, vanity, vanity
If you wanna see fire in the sky, then you gotta look up
Starlight gets bright
Make your wish come true tonight

I'm only one type of fearless, the one you cannot control
Connect my own dots while I place you bitches on hold
A centerfold wearing inner city gold
My Rolex and Rolodex never changed none of my soul
In my physical, I'm so whimsical
I'm an analog fairy with a drop of digital
And if you didn't know, I keep it original
My role is pivotal, and if you wanna see me, baby, look up

Starlight gets bright
Make your wish come true tonight
Vanity, vanity, vanity, vanity, vanity, vanity
If you wanna see fire in the sky, then you gotta look up
Starlights
My vanities flare and it gets bright
My vanities flare, it'll make your wish come true tonight
Vanity, vanity, vanity, vanity, vanity, vanity

Starlights
My vanities flare and it gets bright
My vanities flare, it'll make your wish come true tonight
Vanity, vanity, vanity, vanity, vanity, vanity

Starlight gets bright
Starlight gets bright
Starlight gets bright
If you wanna see fire in the sky, then you gotta look up
Starlight gets bright
It's starlight, motherfucker
Vanity, vanity, vanity
