

Day 4

Lemâitre

Lord, I need a miracle
Help me save my soul
Seems I've hit my lowest low
How much further can I go

I know the pain, the strain, the shit you've been through
I know game wont change, but it changes you don't fall in line, line
You cant remain the same but you can stay true

Yeah, I know
Been around the block a few times before
Yeah, I know
Seen a couple things lost around the road
Yeah, I know
You will never be alone, even at your lowest low
Things will get better that's for sure

Fallin' from a fantasy
Illusions all I see
All my instincts leavin' me
Somehow, I still believe

Yeah, I know
Been around the block a few times before
Yeah, I know
Seen a couple things lost around the road
Yeah, I know
You will never be alone, even at your lowest low
Things will get better that's for sure

But you gotta find a way
To see a better day
Cause I refuse to stay
Its such a dirty ugly place

Yeah, I know
Been around the block a few times before
Yeah, I know
Seen a couple things lost around the road
Yeah, I know
You will never be alone, even at your lowest low
Things will get better that's for sure...
