You should go and see a pro
You should go and see a pro, shouldn't you

Everybody says so
Everybody says so

I walk on glass
To distract me from the past
These cuts will heal
And take the sting out of my dreams

I'm half asleep
In the middle of a dream
Don't know what's real
But the bleeding from my skin

Can't find a win
Wouldn't know where to begin
Hope I can see
Something good come out of me
