

Reflection

Lemâitre

Broken bottles on the ground
Telling me to calm down
I don't wanna calm down
The sun is banging the door
It's telling me to go home
I don't want to go home

I don't know where I belong
Now my reflection is a stranger tagging along
And it's been so long since I felt home
Now every option is a new way that I'll go wrong

I'm running in a dream
It's time to take a new turn
New streets
Sparks flying through the weeds
It's time to make a new life
With new seeds

Counting seconds in the day
Can make anything change
Can make anything stay
And I've been drifting around
Getting lost to get found
Wish I could've turned around

I don't know where I belong
Now my reflection is a stranger tagging along
And it's been so long since I felt home
Now every option is a new way that I'll go wrong

I'm running in a dream
It's time to take a new turn
New streets
Sparks flying through the weeds
It's time to make a new life
With new seeds

I don't know where I belong
Now my reflection is a stranger tagging along
And it's been so long since I felt home
Now every option is a new way that I'll go wrong

I'm running in a dream
It's time to take a new turn
New streets
Sparks flying through the weeds
It's time to make a new life
With new seeds
