

Smoke

Lemâitre

Smoke, smoke, smoke

So you ask me how I'm doing now
I've tried to read between the lines
Flame are burning high
Impossible to miss the signs
I guess it's over, I don't wanna live and die
So I told her, "Baby, there's no fire without-"

Maybe just the timing wasn't right
We lost our focus that night
We couldn't see the writing on the wall
So I lied, yeah, I lied

So you ask me how I'm doing now
I've tried to read between the lines
Flame are burning high
Impossible to miss the signs
Fuck love, baby, we can talk in silence
Fuck that 'cause, baby, there's no fire without

Nobody gonna save us 'cause they know that we're doomed, yeah
It's not flames, but the smoke that will get you in hell, yeah
I'm gonna burn this city down
That's what I'll do, yeah, that's what I'll do, yeah

So you ask me how I'm doing
And I'll probably say I'm fine
Though you can see the flames are burning
Impossible to miss the signs
Fuck love, baby, we can talk in silence
Fuck that 'cause, baby, there's no fire without
