

Stepping Stone

Lemâitre

Grief for the ambition
The leaps for heaven fall short
All these scars are worth what they extort
Desperation's gonna, take me all the way
Desperation's gonna

Tripped on my stepping stone
Got up and kept on going
Just me, travelling alone
In desperation
Wake up another day
I need to find my way home
Just me, travelling alone

Pride can come up creeping
It takes me by surprise
Seductive but based on just disguise
We speak of the future
And all that it might hold
But I'm sure you might have heard
All that glitters ain't gold

Tripped on my stepping stone
Got up and kept on going
Just me, travelling alone
In desperation
Wake up another day
I need to find my way home
Just me, travelling alone

Pride can come up creeping
It takes me by surprise
Seductive but based on just disguise
We speak of the future
And all that it might hold
But I'm sure you might have heard
All that glitters ain't gold

Tripped on my stepping stone
Got up and kept on going
Just me, travelling alone
Wake up another day
I need to find my way home
Just me, travelling alone

Tripped on my stepping stone
Got up and kept on going
Just me, travelling alone
Wake up another day
I need to find my way home
Just me, travelling alone

Tripped on my stepping stone
Got up and kept on going
Just me, travelling alone
In desperation
Wake up another day

I need to find my way home
Just me, travelling alone

In desperation, in desperation
