

Higher Love

Lemar

Babe, listen to me
I can sense something ain't complete
It's not like you to hurt easily
Cause you look more than a woman to me
I see the truth is there in your eyes
They tell that your heart's been compromised
Looking lost, ever so shy
Like an angel, too scared to fly

You just need someone to believe in
Like a rising sun, needs a day to come
Girl, let me help with your healing
So that we can reach a higher, higher love
So we can reach a higher and higher love

I know about, what you've been through
Feel the pain in your heart, badder than bruise
If you just let me in
I'm gunna prove, love ain't something you stand to lose

You just need someone to believe in
Like a rising sun, needs a day to come
Girl, let me help with your healing
So that we can reach a higher, higher love
So we can reach a higher and higher love
So we can reach a higher, higher love

I know you're looking for something, that'll do you good
I'm here for the taking an I wish you would
I'm so much more than a helping hand
Yes I am
Yes I am
Yes I am

You just need someone, someone to believe in
Like a rising sun and the day has come
Girl, let me help with your healing
So that we can reach a higher, higher love
So we can reach a higher and higher love
We needed higher, higher love
So we reach a higher
Love
