

A Mask of My Own Face

Lemon Demon

A mask of my own face, I'd wear that-I'd wear that
I'd wear that mask of my own face, I'd wear that-I'd wear that

I'd wear it to a hoedown, and I'd dance with all the belles
And none of them would know that I was secretly myself
I'd rob my own apartment and I wouldn't give a damn
I'd blame it on the person that nobody knows I am

I look into my eyeholes, what do I see?
(Look into my eyeholes, what do you see?)
I look into my eyeholes and what do I see?
A handsome motherfucker motherfucking looking back at me

A mask of my own face, I'd wear that-I'd wear that
I'd wear that mask of my own face, I'd wear that-I'd wear that

I'd wear it on Thanksgiving and I'd laugh in the parade
At all the people hissing, knowing I'm the one they hate
And at the big finale I would tear my face away
And smile as they grip their own and try to do the same

I look into my eyeholes and what do I see?
(Look into my eyeholes, tell me what you see)
I look into my eyeholes and what do I see?
A handsome motherfucker motherfucking looking back at me

A mask of my own face, I'd wear that-I'd wear that
I'd wear that mask of my own face, I'd wear that-I'd wear that
I'd wear that mask of my own face, I'd wear that-I'd wear that
I'd wear that mask of my own face, I'd wear that-I'd wear that
I'd wear that mask of my own face, I'd wear that-I'd wear that
I'd wear that mask of my own face, I'd wear that-I'd wear that-I'd wear that...
