

Daydreams

Lemon

Tell me 'bout the people you know
Do they smile when they're happy
Tell me 'bout the people you've seen
Are they walking in daydreams

Did you mean to say that everyone and everything's okay
Did you mean to say that everyone and everything's a little strange

In daydreams it comes to me
In daydreams the things I've seen
Daydreaming about you, about you and me
In daydreams it comes to me

Tell me 'bout the people you know

Are they desperate and needy
Tell me 'bout the people you've seen
Are they walking in daydreams

Did you mean to say that everyone and everything's okay
Did you mean to say that all my hope and all my dreams have slipped away

In daydreams it comes to me
In daydreams the things I've seen
Daydreaming about you, about you and me
In daydreams it comes to me
