

Durian

Lemuria

If I crack you open
Will I taste pineapple
Or will I smell durian
But that's if I crack you open
Because I probably won't
You will laugh and I will understand
It wasn't my fault

I could always do a little better
Until it's too late to have anything good
I could always do a little better
Until it's too late to have anything good

I could always do a little better
Until it's too late to have anything good
I could always do a little better
Until it's too late to have anything good
