

Keep Quiet

Lemuria

It's the silence
It's the silience
It's the silence that keeps me quiet
But I think if we talk we might kiss

I really think if we talk
I really think if we talk we might kiss

You always look so shy
And I always lacked in confidence

I won't have to
I won't have to
I won't have to compose another list
Of all the things I wish I did

I've grown
I've grown tired of all the sleep
And every hour we've been wasting

You always look so shy
And I always lacked in confidence

Your sheets were
Were made for
Were made for ghosts like me x4

It's the silence
It's the silence
It's the silence that keeps me quiet

But I think if we talk...

Your sheets were made for ghosts like me
Your sheets were made for ghost like me
