

Lemons

Lemuria

We don't have to get married,
Or live in the city to know,
That you're the one for me,

Cause oh but it's enough
Oh it's enough
Oh but it's enough for me,

Who knows, who cares?
That is what your shoulders shrug,
I think that is what you think of us.

You try to love me responsibly,
I couldn't have it that easy,
Who would want it that easy?

It sure ain't enough for me

Your emotions are obscene,
You don't realise how much that hurts me.
