

Lick Your Lips

Lemuria

I don't want to try to explain my songs
Omitting you I get to brood in Diogenes tub
If it was something I wanted to tell you
I would have already done so
Lick your lips I took a lion's share
Taste the bitterness because the vineyards bare
Like a crab making a home out of empty shells
I will always ambush you
Eureka
Seduced by a siren it gives you ambition
To find a reason to leave
