

Nevermind

Lena Katina

There's a stately raven
Spot him through the trees
Soaring high above me
Looking down on me
All the rain has stopped
As I head into the highland
I stay focused
On a brand new life and

Nevermore, nevermind
Nevermore, nevermind
Nothing ventured, nothing gained
I can win myself back now
Nevermore, nevermind
Nevermore, nevermind
Echoes that linger
Are fading to black now

Breathing isn't something
That you need to feel
Oxygen the chambers of beating hearts reveal
Not until your instinct is racing to receive the Secrets that another is desperate to conceal

Nevermore, nevermind
Nevermore, nevermind
Nothing ventured, nothing gained
I can win myself back now
Nevermore, nevermind
Nevermore, nevermind
Echoes that linger
Are fading to black now

Nevermore, nevermind
Nevermore, nevermind
Nothing ventured, nothing gained
I can win myself back now
Nevermore, nevermind
Nevermore, nevermind
Echoes that linger
Are fading to black now
