

Waiting

Lena Katina

We felt like one
Till you ran away
Now we're just like strangers
A past they have strayed
And here I wonder where it all went wrong
Cause we were gonna change the world
Why did we have to lose it all?

I'm waiting
I'll keep on waiting for you
I'm waiting, keep on waiting only for you
Run away, should've stay?
Run away, should've stay?
Run away, run away
Waiting
Waiting for you
I keep on waiting, waiting for you

I still remember the things you would say
Like a bed time story the tide washed away
And now I wonder where it all went wrong
I'm trying just to find a road?
So I wanna let you know

I'm waiting
I'll keep on waiting for you
I'm waiting, keep on waiting only for you
Run away, should've stay?
Run away, should've stay?
Run away, run away

As I closed my eyes I see
A dream of you and me
I wake up you disappear

I'm waiting
I'll keep on waiting for you
I'm waiting, keep on waiting only for you
I'm waiting
I'll keep on waiting for you

I'm waiting, keep on waiting only for you
Run away, should've stay?
Run away, should've stay?
Run away, run away
Run away, should've stay?
Run away, should've stay?
Run away, run away

I'm waiting
I'm waiting
I'm waiting
I'm waiting
