

Another Hit Single

Leng Tch'e

Here we go, yeah, another day at my fucking job
Another eight hours of listening to the radio I'm going mental of hearing the same, over and over and over and again
The same shit all day long, they even redo old songs
Just another farce in the demoralization of man Just wait till the new hit comes and strikes you with boredom till kingdom come
I'm going mental of hearing the same, over and over and
over and again
The same shit all day long, they even redo old songs
Play something else, before I lose my sense
