

Ingest / Dissent

Leng Tch'e

Social utopia differentiates from own values in life
Does one have the right to differ from what the mass imposes?
Barriers and rules imposed by other is not my way to go
I dissent all the sheep, ingest to create my own morals Choices imposed...
Do we still have the right to choose for your own sexuality, way of life?
Or are we consciously policed by our friends, and our government?
Who sets the rules, the codes on how to dress and act?
On who to love or to hate, how can you make a standard of that?
I for one take my right to disagree and break global pact Bend the rules and dissent to bigotry, ingest a higher truth...
How can you... pick on someone, make his life hell
For the personal choices that he has made People differ in opinion and taste
There is no preset on how life should be lived Bend the rules and dissent to bigotry, ingest a higher truth...
