

The Happy Retard

Leng Tch'e

Have you never wished to be a real dumbass,
Too stupid to realize all the shit that's going on
So that you could just be another happy retard ?

When I was too young to realize anything
Life just looked good 'coz I didn't see all the shit
When something still went wrong god was there to save you
Growing up opened my eyes and there's no god to help !

Pain ! Why ? I'm just too sensitive for this selfish world

I've learned to numb my feelings I became callous
Your words are blades ripping right through my flesh
Your insults are hammers capable of breaking my heart
Oh, how I wish to be a happy retard now
So I wouldn't have to think about anything anymore

Constantly thinking, always these questions,
I'm wrecking myself by worrying too much
Am I a fool, am I to blame ? Sometimes ignorance
Could be bliss... or not ?
