

Time Is Against Me

Leng Tch'e

They always have to wait for one person
Every time again he is too late
Every appointment he will fuck up
And he has got the same name as me

I'm always late, can't help it
It's more powerful than me

There's still plenty of time left
To do all this stuff I want to do
But then I look on my watch
And I'm already too late again
Time is against me !

I'm keeping me busy with futilities
And five minutes later an hour is gone
It's a clear and simple conspiracy
Time is against me and that ain't my fault
