

Arrow

Lenka

Take aim, fire
Play games with my affection for you
Take flight when you like
Cause you know there's nothing else I can do

Aim high
Bullseye

With an arrow straight to my heart
I know you'll tear it apart
With an arrow straight to my heart
I know you'll tear it apart

Make haste, hurry
Don't waste another second of time
Cause you know where I like
And I live in the palm of your hand

Aim high
Bullseye

With an arrow straight to my heart
I know you'll tear it apart
With an arrow straight to my heart
I know you'll tear it apart

With an arrow straight to my heart
I know you'll tear it apart
With an arrow straight to my heart
I know you'll tear it apart

I don't want anybody else
It's only heaven
when you weight up all down next to me

Ooh an arrow straight to my heart
With an arrow straight to my
Ooh an arrow straight to my heart

With an arrow straight to my heart
I know you'll tear it apart
With an arrow straight to my heart
I know you'll tear it apart

With an arrow straight to my heart
I know you'll tear it apart
With an arrow straight to my heart
I know you'll tear it apart

I know you'll tear it apart
I know you'll tear it apart
