Heal

Lenka

White wash won't work, I can see you coming
We need to talk, so let's have it out
You say you're hurt but you don't see that you're hurting others
We both need a little peace of mind

I know that the truth is undercover
But you hold me to a lie I can no longer keep
The pages turn but you won't see my side of the story
We both need a little time and some peace of mind

How long can we keep this up when we're both burned by the fire
This heat in my heartbeat tells me you can't tame a fighter
All we need is a space to breathe and we can build a bridge and start to
Heal our wounds
Heal each other now
Heal
Each other now

History is a part of the conversation
But the past no longer holds me back anymore
No I won't hide behind the secrets and the complications
We both know that we were wrong and it's time to move on

How long can we keep this up when we're both burned by the fire
This heat in my heartbeat tells me you can't tame a fighter
All we need is a space to breathe and we can build a bridge and start to
Heal our wounds
Heal each other now
Heal
Each other now

Lay me down in a field of flowers
Hold now, we can talk it over
You and I, we will be alright here and now

These words will wash away the fire
And heal our wounds
Heal each other now
Heal
Each other now

Heal our wounds (this heat in my heartbeat)
Heal our wounds (this heat in my heartbeat)
Heal (this heat in my heartbeat)
Each other now

Heal our wounds
Heal each other now
Heal
Each other now
