

Bend Over Backwards

Lennon Stella

Common ground
I'm finding it hard to find
When you cut me down
To nothing but a dotted line

Put me way up on the highest shelf
Like you're the only one who can tell
Who I am, what I want
You can't know me like I know myself

I can compromise
I'm willing to try
I'll put in the work
But I won't bend over backwards
I can be polite
Not say what's on my mind
Even if it hurts
But I won't bend over backwards
Bend over backwards

Time I've lost
Tying myself up in knots
There's a heavy cost
To letting someone else call the shots

Read the disappointment on my face
'Cause you can never give more than you take

Are you scared of the thought?
That what you wanted isn't what you got

I can compromise
I'm willing to try
I'll put in the work
But I won't bend over backwards
I can be polite
Not say what's on my mind
Even if it hurts
But I won't bend over backwards
Bend over backwards

I can compromise
I'm willing to try
I'll put in the work
But I won't bend over backwards
Bend over backwards

I can compromise
I'm willing to try
I'll put in the work
But I won't bend over backwards
I can be polite
Not say what's on my mind
Even if it hurts
But I won't bend over backwards
Bend over backwards
