

Happy Birthday

Lenny Kravitz

This morning is a special morning
We gonna party all day long
We'll gonna celebrate the day that you were born
And we will start right with this song

Happy birthday to you
Happy birthday to you

All of your friends will come together
And all your family will be here
We gonna cook you all the food we know you love
And wash it down with lots of beer

There comes a time for cake and candles
You make a wish for all the year
We rather have you blow that fire out
And we will all stand up and cheer

Happy birthday to you
Happy birthday to you

There comes the time to open presents
Whether they hand me or not
They will be filled with all the love we have for you

Happy birthday to you
Happy birthday to you

Happy birthday to you
Happy birthday to you
Happy birthday to you

Happy birthday to you
