

It's Just Another Fine Day (In This Universe Of Love)

Lenny Kravitz

I don't know, but I know
That you are there in limbo
I call your name, just listen
You're the one I'm missing

It's just another fine day in this universe
I can't hug you, I can't touch you
I can't count the ways that this really hurts
I can't hold you now
It's just another fine day in this universe of love

All our days are borrowed
And we don't know tomorrow
I hear your voice, feel your power
Let's heal our souls from sorrow

It's just another fine day in this universe
I can't hug you, I can't touch you
I can't count the ways, 'cause this really hurts
I can't hold you now
It's just another fine day in this universe of love

Lockdown
Lockdown
Ah, yeah

It's just another fine day, another fine day in this universe
I can't hug you, I can't touch you
Just stand out my way, 'cause I'm really hurt
Another fine day, it's just another fine day in this universe of love
I can't hold you now

It's just another fine day, another fine day in this universe
I can't hug you, I can't touch you
I can't count the ways, 'cause this really hurts
Another fine day, it's just another fine day in this universe of love
I can't hold you now

Lockdown
Lockdown
Just a lockdown, baby
Woo!
Ooh, yeah, lockdown
Oh, yeah, mm
Yeah
Mm, mm
Lockdown
