Godspell, I had this idea and if it all goes well We'll end up in heaven not down in hell With a story to tell "Count me in", she said "take me down to West Coast, I'm dying to see the cash flow let it stain my soul" Best friends That's where it begins and this is where it ends But isn't it wonderful, That money can't buy you love? High five, Just to see if we are still alive And thumbs up If we're alive enough Are we alive enough Are we alive enough? Sinner, But I don't feel like a loser, I'm a winner My chances aren't getting any thinner Nothing's possible Look at them Is that where my life's supposed to take me to? Can't I just do whatever I want to do And keep my love Am I alive enough? Ripped up jeans We're standing at the bus stop

Looking beautiful...
