Before the light comes in, I want to feel your love How it turns bittersweet Am I still the one you're thinking of? Before the light comes in, just let me know you're near And if you love on me, you always find me here

'Cause without you, I'm lost
'Cause without you, without you, I'm lost

Before the light comes in, I want to sense your touch And even though I know just a little of you I'm missing you so much Before the light comes in, out heartbeats ?? I wish I knew you well, though we never had the time

'Cause without you, I'm lost, yeah
'Cause without you, without you, I'm lost
'Cause without you, without you, baby, no
Without you, without you, I'm lost

Before the light comes in, I want you by my side And I give everything to bring you back to life

Without you, without you, baby, no Without you, without you, I'm lost
