

Lover

Lenny

Midnight lift and your guitar
I was yours and you were ours, oh
I felt it shift and it pushed me hard
It wasn't clear right from the start, oh

You showed me love then you stripped it bare Tugged on my heart 'till there was nothing there, oh
You dug a hole for me to see
How deep I'd fall, where you'd bury me, oh
Don't you know you're losing in your own game?
Don't you know you're sparking a hole new flame

Lover,
Got a home all alone
Now you're wishin' you never met me
There'll be others, and imma walk away with everything that you had.

Lover,
Now you're home all alone
Yeah you're wishin' you'd just forget me
There's no other way and you gotta know you're never gonna bring me down.

Alright.

Holding on for far too long
You really thought you never did no wrong? Oh.
Turn my head and I can see
Your dirty deeds always follow me, oh.

I don't care that I broke your rules, I broke your pride and I broke your cool Finally I understand that hating you feels fucking good

Lover,
Got a home all alone
Now you're wishin' you never met me
There'll be others, and imma walk away with everything that you had.

Lover,
Got a home all alone
Yeah you're wishin' you'd just forget me
There's no other way and you gotta know you're
never gonna bring me down.

Oh I got a lover, lover like no other

Lover!
